HARUYA Hostels Aqua

Just 8 minutes from JR Kyoto Station. An old Kyoto townhouse with around 100 years of history. Located nearby Nishi Hongan-ji Temple - allowing for a nice morning stroll. In the evenings, guests can visit a famous Kyoto sento bath. Kiyomizudera Temple, Gion and Kinkakuji can all be reached easily via Kyoto's great transportation network.

Kyoto Guesthouse Shiori Ann

Refurbished a Kyoto townhouse built in the early Showa Era (1926 - 1989). 10 minutes on foot to Kyoto Station, and 15 minutes on foot to Shijo, the city center of Kyoto. Welcomes solo-travelers.

Capsule Hotels (Average Room Rate @ 2,000 4,000JPY/person)- Individual pods, sometimes dozens to a room, each a self-contained mini-hotel room, with a bed, lights, and sometimes even a TV.

Nine Hours Kyoto

Capsule rooms are single-occupancy, so please change the number of guests to only one guest per room (i.e., two adults will require two rooms). Rooms for parties including both men and women must be reserved separately, as nine hours is divided into exclusive women's floors and men's floors.

First Cabin Kyoto Karasuma

Only 2 stops from Kyoto Station via subway line train! Conveniently located 1 minute on foot from Shijo Station, this hotel features unique rooms designed like a plane's first class cabin. All cabins are equipped with a TV, Wi-Fi connection, and amenities. Shared facilities include a lounge, jet bath, shower booth, and others. Even lone female travelers can be at ease, as floors in the accommodation area are either male-exclusive or female-exclusive.

Ryokans (Average Room Rate @ 20,000 30,000JPY/person) - Known as Japanes Traditional Style Inn with Tatami Room.

Ryokan Adumaya

Located close to Kyoto Station, this ryokan is very convenient for sightseeing.

Togetsu-tei

Founded in 1898 during Meiji era (1868-1912), Togetsu Tei, one among the best hotels for strolling in Sagano, is situated at Togetsubashi Minamizume. Inside the hotel, Kitayama Maruta (Kyoto's symbolic tree used in traditional buildings) are all over the place. Scents of Oko (Japanese incense) and sounds of Koto (Traditional Japanese stringed musical instrument) reproduce the true Kyoto atmosphere.
